

Interfaith CarePartners
Board of Directors

Privacy Policy

Interfaith CarePartners protects and safeguards personal information obtained from donors. All information stored electronically is accessible only to authorized personnel and protected by password access. All printed documents are accessible only to authorized personnel and stored in locked cabinets. Interfaith CarePartners does not share this information with any other entity. A record of donations is provided to donors annually. If donor information or contribution records are inaccurate, appropriate changes will be made upon notification.